FRENCH ADVANCE IN HARD FIGHTING

German Attacks Elsewhere Partially Repulsed, Says Paris War Office.

PARIN, May 1.-The Germans made several attacks last night on the Alone front. To-day's official announcement says they were partially repulsed by French machine gun fire and grenades. In the Champagne the French made progress. Following is the text of the War Office statement:

"In the region of the Chemindes-Dames the artillery was fairly active. On the Cerny-Hurteblae Craosne front the enemy made several attacks on our trenches and small posts. The attacks were partially repulsed by our machinegun fire and our

A despatch from the French front Am 12,000 men each.

Of these divisions, 143 faced the French and British, but only 99 were Bail in actual line, the others being held in strategic reserve. The remaining 76 divisions were then on the Russian, Roumanian and Macedonian fronts. Many of the strategic reserve divisions have since been thrown into line, and, [60] owing to losses, were later sent to the rear for reconstitution.

At the maximum stated, of 12,000 men to a division and 219 divisions. the German army would consist of 2,628,000 men. With 76 divisions there , 9 would be 912,000 men on the eastern and Balkan fronts.
